A Citizen Tortured and Narrowly Escaped Being Burned Alive.

The following letter comes to us vouched by gentlemen of the highest respectability in Natchez. It speaks for itself:

NATCHEZ, July 28, 1868.

A Rising Cloud in the South—What Shall be our Future.

From the New York Herald, July 31st.

BLAIR A CONFISCATIONIST.

His Farewell Order.

General F. P. Blair's farewell order to his corps, just previous to its being mustered out, is a document which can hardly be pleasing to his new supporters at the South. It is dated at Louisville, July 11, 1865. After complimenting his men for their valor, he says:

The order for your disbandment (as you are well aware) has already been received, and nothing remains to be done to restore you to homes and families, except the formal discharge from service. Your service demands a better recognition at the hands of the country you have aided to preserve than mere words of applause. The Romans made their conquering soldiers free-holders in the lands they have conquered; and as upon your return to your homes you will find ...

The London Times and its Advertisers.

A London correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, in giving an inside view of the London Times establishment, gives the following information in relation to its advertising business:

The Way to Enforce Peace.

The Galena Gazette has the following in regard to a little "unpleasantness" which lately came off in that vicinity:

A wasp killed a man in England recently.

From the London Times, July 10.

Lord Shaftesbury has, we think, little reason to be dissatisfied with the reception of his measure for repressing the innovations of the Ritualists. Good reasons were alleged last night for not reading it a second time; but by adopting the previous question, the House of Lords has expressed its reluctance to reject such a measure, and consequently its decided aversion from the practices in question. THE REVENUE COMMISSIONERSHIP.

A number of prominent officials here have long been trying to bring some influence to bear to induce Governor Cox to reconsider his declination of Mr. Rollins' office. Mr. Rollins leaves for the North to-night, to be absent a fortnight.

THE NEW AUSTRIAN MINISTER.

The New Austrian Minister, Mr. Watts, has his commission, and will be ready to leave the last of this month.

RECIPROCITY.

The interview of Baron Stoeckel, the Russian Minister, with the President, last Friday, was by appointment. Baron Stoeckel presented an autograph letter from the Emperor congratulating Mr. Johnson on his escape from removal from office. This is held by Baron Stoeckel to be a return for the joint resolution of Congress congratulating the Emperor on his narrow escape [illegible]. The letter has been in the Russian Minister's hands for several weeks, but he withheld it until the Alaska matter should be disposed of.
